Scranton Preschool

Whats happening at SAC?

The preschoolers spent November learning about being thankful, giving to others and about Thanksgiving. This is in addition to the regular work we do on preacademic skills as well as social/emotional skills. We are very thankful for the nice weather that stuck around for most of the month. We love being able to get outside to play as much as possible!

In December, we have 3 weeks to continue our work on preacademic skills as well as learn about winter holidays. SAC picture retake day is on Tuesday, December 2nd, so if you would like your child to participate in that, please let Kaitlyn know in the office.
